

I would like to add my voice to the protests against Sinclair Broadcasting being allowed to pre-empt their regular programming and use the public airways to air a blatantly one-sided political statement against presidential candidate John Kerry. This documentary is NOT news, it is merely an attempt to poison the electoral process and advance the company's own political leanings. I feel the FCC should act against this. It sets a dangerous precedent.